Welcome

Call to Worship

Psalms 67, adapted

Leader: May God be gracious to us and bless us that God’s way may be known among all nations.

People: We praise you, O God!

Leader: Let the nations be glad and sing for joy, for you judge the peoples with equity and guide the nations.

People: We praise you, O God!

Leader: May God continue to bless us. Let all the earth honor the Lord.

People: We praise you, O God!

Hymn “Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing” CCS #87

Invocation

Prayer for Peace/Community (CCS #282) Joseph Rainey

God is still speaking when children beg for bread, roaming through city streets, their innocence long dead. How can we close our eyes, complacent in our greed?

God, move our hearts of stone to serve a world in need.

God is still speaking when exiles cry in pain, forced from their homelands or enslaved for others’ gain. How can we leave them to endure the wounds of hate?

God, use our broken hearts, a new world to create.

God is still speaking when people pray for peace, seeing, through eyes of faith, the day when war will cease. How can we cling to hate as God’s name we confess?

God, let our hearts be changed by love, the world to bless.

Scripture Reading

Revelation 21:10, 22:1-5

And in the spirit he carried me away to a great, high mountain and showed me the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God. I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb. And the city has no need of sun or moon to shine on it, for the glory of God is its light, and its lamp is the Lamb. The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it. Its gates will never be shut by day—and there will be no night there. People will bring into it the glory and the honor of the nations. But nothing unclean will enter it, nor anyone who practices abomination or falsehood, but only those who are written in the Lamb’s book of life. Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb through the middle of the street of the city. On either side of the river is the tree of life with its twelve kinds of fruit, producing its fruit each month; and the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations. Nothing accursed will be found there any more. But the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will worship him; they will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. And there will be no more night; they need no light of lamp or sun, for the Lord God will be their light, and they will reign forever and ever.

Disciples Generous Response

Doctrine & Covenants 161:6a-b

Stand firm in the name of the One you proclaim and create diverse communities of disciples and seekers, rejoicing in the continuing fulfillment of the call to this people to prophetically witness in the name of Jesus Christ. Heed the urgent call to become a global family united in the name of the Christ, committed in love to one another, seeking the kingdom for which you yearn and to which you have always been summoned. That kingdom shall be a peaceable one and it shall be known as Zion

During the Disciples' Generous Response, we focus on aligning our heart with God's heart. Our offerings are more than meeting budgets or funding mission. Through our offerings we are able to tangibly express our gratitude to God who is the giver of all.

As we share our mission tithes either by placing money in the plates or through eTithing, use this time to thank God for the many gifts received in life. Our hearts grow aligned with God's when we gratefully receive and faithfully respond by living Christ's mission.

WORLD CHURCH UPDATES

The church is curious about the needs and desires of our younger members and friends. Many people have a connection to the church from childhood or through camps and reunions but may not be active in regular church activities. Please encourage friends and family ages 18 – 50 to share an email or mobile number to participate in a simple survey. <https://bit.ly/18-50survey>
